

Daniel Davidson, PhD, BCBAD is the Director of Program Training for Intermountain Centers for Human Development in Arizona. Prior to that he was the Positive Behavior Support program director at the Institute for Human Development at NAU. There he created the state's first BACB® approved Graduate Certificate program and directed PBISAz, building the state's capacity to support schools/districts implementing PBIS.