

Dr. Gail Jacobs has over 25 years of experience as a classroom teacher, Special Education Director, Superintendent, Curriculum Director and grant writer. Dr. Jacobs has worked in secure care facilities for the last 15 years, overseeing CTE programs and writing and oversight of over a half-million dollars in grant funds. She was the Director of Special Education and Superintendent for Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections until she "retired". During her retirement she co- developed a transition program for at-risk youth. Dr. Jacobs chaired the Arizona Secure Care Consortium, the Special Education Advisory Panel and is a current member of the AZPBIS advisory board.