

Dr. Yadira Flores leverages her knowledge and experience in schools to share culturally responsive education and behavior practices to help students prosper. As a Nationally Certified School Psychologist she is an expert in psychoeducational evaluations, bilingual assessments, and evidence-based learning strategies that impact teacher effectiveness and student's health and well-being.