

Currently working as a school guidance counselor in Scottsdale Unified School District, Megan Mayer has worked in Arizona as an educator for 19 years. Ms. Mayer earned a Master's Degree in Counseling from the University of Phoenix and Bachelor of Arts in Communication from the University of Colorado. During her educational career Ms. Mayer has been actively involved within her school's PBIS Committee. She has participated in planning events, guest speakers, student assemblies and attending state training for PBIS. In recent years she acted as "club sponsor" for an after school PBIS student group that created videos for the middle school. One of these videos earned recognition last year at the National APBS conference in San Francisco, California.
