

Dr. Paul Beljan is a child and adult diplomate with the American Board of Pediatric Neuropsychology and American Board of Professional Neuropsychology. In 2015, Dr. Beljan completed a post-doctoral master's degree in psychopharmacology. Dr. Beljan's professional focus is on Alcohol/Drug Related Neurodevelopmental Deficit (A/DRND), Gifted Intelligence, Learning Disorders, Traumatic Brain Injury, and ADHD diagnosis and interventions. Dr. Beljan co-wrote Misdiagnosis and Dual Diagnoses of Gifted Children and Adults.

Dr. Kathleen Bree specializes in pediatric and adult neuropsychological assessment, and child and family functioning. Her clinical practice has focused on the assessment of learning disabilities, attention and executive functioning, and neuro-developmental disorders. Dr. Vanessa Berens is a psychologist who specializes in trauma and works with adolescents, adults, families, and couples. She has extensive background working with intimate partner violence, individuals recovering from traumatic events, and anxiety disorders.

Dr. Vanessa Berens is a psychologist who specializes in trauma and works with adolescents, adults, families, and couples. She has extensive background working with intimate partner violence, individuals recovering from traumatic events, and anxiety disorders.